GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
Abstract.

Agriculture - Research - Survey of Research work done by the Agriculture Department - Constitution of Expert Committee - Association of non-officials prominently connected with 'agriculture' with the work of the Committee - Ordered.

FOOD & AGRICULTURE DEPARTMENT

G.O. Ms. No. 1138. Dated the 12th October 1949.

Read:-

G.O. No. 919, Food & Agriculture, dated 9.9.1949.
From the Director of Agriculture, letter No. X2/162/49 dated 13.9.1949.

Order:-

In the Government Order read above the Government have constituted an Expert Committee to review the progress of research work done in the Agricultural Department during the five years 1944-48 in order to assess the value of results achieved so far in terms of practical application to agriculture and suggest further lines of work to be carried out in all branches, e.g. soil science, manures, crop breeding, plant protection and development of agricultural industries. The following members comprise the Committee:-

(1). Dr. G.S. Cheema, D.Sc., I.A.S., Fruit Development Adviser to the Government of India (Retired). . . . . .(Chairman).

(2) Dr. T.S. Venkataraman, D.Sc., Sugarcane Specialist to the Government of India (Retired), Thyagarayanagar, Madras.

(3) Dr. D.V. Bal, M.Sc., Ph.D., Director, Institute of Plant Industry, Indore..

(4) Dr. Jayachand Luthra, Principal, Agricultural College, Benares Hinu University, Benares.

2. The Government consider that in order to examine how far the results of research have been made available to the ryots and how best to co-ordinate research with field work, a few leading non-officials who have been prominently connected with the development of agriculture in this Province should be associated with the work of the Committee in a suitable manner. The Government therefore desire that the Expert Committee should examine during their d tours and sittings to the extent tune and opportunity permit, a few non-officials (e.g. Sri. B. Ramachandra Reddi, President, Madras Chamber of Agriculture, Sri. G. Rajagopal Pillai, Bihshandarkoil, Tiruchirapalli District, Sri. V.T. Arasu, Villivakkam, Madras, etc.) also in particular Sri. M. Baipineedu, M.L.A., non-official Honorary Visitor to the Agricultural Research Stations and farms in the Province before the Committee draws up its report. The Director of Agriculture is requested to inform the Chairman of the Expert Committee accordingly.

(By Order of His Excellency the Governor).
